Lærervejledning

A pop-up bookshop opens today. Work in English as you read, talk, write and recommend one book to a visitor.

SIX ENGLISH TASKS FOR A FRIENDLY BOOKSHOP OPENING

Før timen

- ☐ Print the student material: cover, six stations and team sheet.
- ☐ Place the stations so teams can start at different points.
- ☐ Cut out the six clue cards from the answer key and keep them with the teacher.
- ☐ Put a blue mark or a final card at the agreed ending place.

Materialer

six English station sheets, team sheet and pencils, six teacher clue cards, a blue ending mark for the final shelf.

Elevmaterialet og den offentlige forhåndsvisning er facitfri. Udlever kun lærerens brikker, når et hold kan vise sin tænkning.

Gennemførsel

1. Open the shop

Tell the class that the books and the Brightbrook event are fictional. English is the working language during the trail.

2. Rotate

Give about seven minutes at each station. At station 3, approve a short understandable dialogue rather than an accent.

3. Meet visitors

Put the clue cards in station order, read the final message and let each team give one short recommendation.

4. Reflect

Ask which words helped a customer choose the right book and which recommendation sounded most useful.

Afsluttende samtale

- ☐ Which words in a book description helped you choose?
- ☐ What makes a recommendation clear and polite?
- ☐ How did you make sure your spoken dialogue was understandable?

GENRE VOCABULARY

OPGAVEN

A. The Laughing Llama: Lola the llama loses a purple sock on every page. Each short chapter ends with a silly problem. B. River Rangers: Two friends test the water in their town river and make a clean-up plan. The book gives facts and labelled diagrams. C. The Last Lantern: When the lights go out in Pine Street, Noor follows a tiny lantern through rain and dark streets. Match each title with funny story, information book, adventure.

Write one keyword from each description that proves your match.

CULTURAL MEETING THROUGH A FICTIONAL MEDIUM

OPGAVEN

FICTIONAL EVENT CARD: Brightbrook Library's Story Swap. Bring a book you enjoyed. Say one sentence about it, then choose another reader's recommendation. The children's corner is called the Reading Den. What must a visitor do? Write one polite question about Reading Den and one similarity with a class book basket.

Write your answer in English. Mark the one thing that is invented for this learning task.

MATCHING INFORMATION TO A NEED

Recommendation note

OPGAVEN

River Rangers: nature, 48 pages, ages 9+. Night House: mystery, 70 pages, ages 11+. Tiny Tigers: animal story, 32 pages, ages 7+. Customer: I want a non-scary 40-60-page nature book for a 10-year-old. Choose and write a two-sentence note.

Check every part of the customer's request before you choose.

Vores svar og begrundelse

Vis jeres forklaring til læreren, før I får næste brik.

Holdark

Skriv korte noter fra hver post. I skal ikke gætte på slutningen - vis jeres tænkning og saml først brikkerne, når læreren har godkendt dem.

Post 5: Story Swap

Korrekt svar: Bring a book, say one sentence about it, and choose another recommendation. Example question: What is the Reading Den? Both places let readers share or choose books. Brightbrook is fictional.

Make clear that Brightbrook is an invented learning universe, not a real library.

Brik til holdet: BLUE

Post 6: Recommendation note

Korrekt svar: River Rangers. Example: Try River Rangers. It is a 48-page nature book for readers aged nine and up.

Check the requirements before the choice.

Brik til holdet: SHELF

Sæt brikkerne i posternes rækkefølge: MEET + ME + AT + THE + BLUE + SHELF. Den fælles besked er: MEET ME AT THE BLUE SHELF. Read the message together, go to the agreed blue mark, and let each team share one book recommendation.
